("CSB" or "Company"), the principal executive offices of which are located at 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, in connection with the Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the "Meeting") of CSB to be held on Wednesday, April 21, 2010, at the Carlisle Inn, Walnut Creek, Ohio, at 7:00 p.m. local time or at any adjournment thereof. REVOCAION OF PROXIES, DISCRETIONARY AUTHORITY
AND CUMULATIVE VOTING

Shares of CSB's common stock, par value $6.25 per share (the "Common Shares"), can be voted at the Meeting only if the shareholder is represented by proxy or is present in person. Shareholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke it prior to or at the Meeting. Unless so revoked, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted at the Meeting and all adjournments thereof. Proxies may be revoked by written notice to the Secretary of CSB (addressed to: CSB Bancorp, Inc., 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, Attention: Ms. Peggy L. Conn, Secretary) or by the filing of a later dated proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Meeting. A proxy will not be voted if a shareholder attends the Meeting and votes in person. Proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted in accordance with the directions given therein. Where no instructions are indicated, proxies will be voted for the nominees for directors set forth below or as otherwise described herein in the event cumulative voting for directors is properly requested. The proxy confers discretionary authority on the persons named therein to vote with respect to (i) the election of any person as a director where the nominee is unavailable or unable to serve, (ii) matters incident to the conduct of the Meeting and (iii) any other business that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. Cumulative voting is not available for the other proposals referenced and described below. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, their proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively, and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees for director, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld. CSB is the sole shareholder of The Commercial & Savings Bank of Millersburg, Ohio, an Ohio banking corporation ("Bank").

The Board of Directors of CSB is soliciting the enclosed proxy and the cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by CSB. In addition to use of the mail, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone, telefax, or email by directors, officers and employees of CSB.

VOTING INFORMATION

Who can vote at the Annual Meeting?

Only holders of common shares of record at the close of business on March 1, 2010 are entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting. At the close of business on March 1, 2010, there were 2,734,799 common shares outstanding and entitled to vote. The common shares are the only shares of CSB's capital stock entitled to vote at the Meeting.

Each holder of common shares is entitled to one vote for each common share held on March 1, 2010. A shareholder wishing to exercise cumulative voting with respect to the election of directors must notify the President, a Vice President or the Secretary of CSB in writing before 7:00 p.m., on April 19, 2010. If cumulative voting is requested and if an announcement of such request is made upon the convening of the Meeting by the chairman or the secretary of the meeting or by or on behalf of the shareholder requesting cumulative voting, you will have votes equal to the number of directors to be elected, multiplied by the number of common shares owned by you, and will be entitled to distribute your votes among the candidates as you see fit.

How do I vote?

Whether or not you plan to attend the Meeting, we urge you to vote in advance by proxy. To do so, you may complete, sign and date the accompanying proxy card and return it in the envelope provided.

If you plan to attend the Meeting and vote in person, we will give you a ballot when you arrive. If your common shares are held in the name of your broker, your financial institution or another record holder, you must bring an account statement or letter from that broker, financial institution or other holder of record authorizing you to vote on behalf of such record holder. The account statement or letter must show that you were the direct or indirect beneficial owner of the common shares on March 1, 2010, the record date for voting at the Meeting.

What if my common shares are held in "street name"?

If you hold your common shares in "street name" with a broker, a financial institution or another holder of record, you should review the information provided to you by such holder of record. This information will describe the procedures you need to follow in instructing the holder of record how to vote your "street name" common shares and how to revoke previously given instructions. If you hold your common shares in "street name," you may be eligible to appoint your proxy electronically via the Internet or telephonically and may incur costs associated with the electronic access or telephone usage.

How will my common shares be voted?

Those common shares represented by a properly executed proxy card that is received prior to the Meeting and not subsequently revoked will be voted as you direct. If you submit a valid proxy card prior to the Meeting but do not complete the voting instructions on the proxy card, to the extent permitted by applicable law, your proxy will vote your common shares as recommended by the Board of Directors, as follows:

- "FOR" the election of each of the director nominees listed below under "PROPOSAL 1 – ELECTION OF DIRECTORS;"
- "FOR" the ratification of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. as the independent registered public accounting firm for CSB Bancorp, Inc. for the year 2010 under "PROPOSAL 2 – RATIFICATION AND APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM."

No appraisal or dissenters' rights exist for any action proposed to be taken at the Annual Meeting.

If any other matters are properly presented for voting at the Meeting, the persons named as proxies on the accompanying proxy card will vote on those matters, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in accordance with their best judgment.

May I revoke my proxy?

Yes. You may change your mind after you send in your proxy card by following any one of the following three procedures. To revoke your proxy:

- Send in another signed proxy card with a later date, which must be received by CSB prior to the Annual Meeting;
- Send written notice revoking your proxy to Ms. Peggy L. Conn, Corporate Secretary, CSB Bancorp, Inc., 91 North Clay Street, Millersburg, Ohio 44654, which must be received prior to the Annual Meeting; or
- Attend the Meeting and revoke your proxy in person if your common shares are held in your name. If your common shares are held in the name of your broker, your financial institution or another holder of record and you wish to revoke your proxy in person, you must bring an account statement or letter from the broker, financial institution or other holder of record indicating that you were the beneficial owner of the common shares on March 1, 2010, the record date for voting.

The last-dated proxy you submit (by any means) will supersede any previously submitted proxy.

Attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

What constitutes a quorum and what vote is required with respect to the proposals presented at the Annual Meeting?

Under CSB's Regulations, a quorum is a majority of the voting shares of CSB then outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting. The common shares are the only shares of CSB's capital stock entitled to vote at the Meeting. Common shares may be present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting. Both abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as being present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. There were 2,734,799 common shares outstanding and entitled to vote on March 1, 2010, the record date. A majority of the outstanding common shares, or 1,367,400 common shares, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum. A quorum must exist to conduct business at the Meeting. Prior to January 1, 2010, broker non-votes were counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum and for "routine" matters including the election of directors.

Brokers who hold their customers' shares in street name submit proxies for shares on some matters, but not others. Generally, this occurs when brokers have not received any instructions from their customers. In these cases, the brokers, as the holders of record are permitted to vote on "routine" matters, which typically include the ratification of the independent registered public accounting firm, but not on non-routine matters. Effective January 1, 2010, brokers are no longer permitted to vote on the election of directors without instructions from their customers.

Election of Directors

Under Ohio law and CSB's Regulations, the two nominees for election as CSB directors receiving the most votes "FOR" election will be elected as directors in the class whose terms will expire at the 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. Common shares as to which the authority to vote is withheld will be counted for quorum purposes but will not affect whether a nominee has received sufficient votes to be elected.

Why the proposal to ratify the appointment of the Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm?

The Audit Committee has again selected S. R. Snodgrass, A.C., an independent registered public accounting firm as CSB's independent public accounting firm for 2010. S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. has served as CSB's accountant since 2005. Although not required, shareholders are being asked to ratify the appointment of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. for CSB for the year 2010. Representatives of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. will be present at the annual meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

What is the recommendation of CSB's Board of Directors?

CSB's Board of Directors recommends that each shareholder vote "FOR" nominees for directors and "FOR" the ratification of the appointment of S.R. Snodgrass, A.C. as the independent registered public accounting firm for CSB Bancorp, Inc. for the year 2010.

Who pays the cost of proxy solicitation?

CSB will pay the costs of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing this proxy statement, the accompanying proxy card, the 2009 Annual Report and other related materials and all other costs incurred in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors. Although we are soliciting proxies by mailing these proxy materials to holders of our common shares, the directors, officers and employees of CSB and our subsidiaries also may solicit proxies by further mailing, personal contact, telephone, facsimile or electronic mail without receiving any additional compensation for such solicitations.

IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING THE AVAILABILITY OF PROXY MATERIALS FOR THE SHAREHOLDER MEETING TO BE HELD ON APRIL 21, 2010

The Proxy Statement, Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, and the 2009 Annual Report to shareholders are available at <http://www.csbl.com/Investor Relations>.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

Shareholders of record as of the close of business on March 1, 2010, (the "Record Date"), are entitled to (i) notice of the Meeting and (ii) one vote on each matter to be considered at the Meeting for each Common Share held on that date. As of the Record Date, there were 2,734,799 Common Shares issued and outstanding. The presence at the Meeting in person or by proxy of at least a majority of such shares will be required to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Common Shares held by holders who abstain from voting and all Common Shares held by brokers who do not have the discretionary authority to vote on certain matters will be included in determining the presence of a quorum. Consequently, an abstention or a broker non-vote has the same effect as a vote against a proposal or director nominee, as each abstention or broker non-vote would be one less vote in favor of a proposal or for a director nominee. Shareholders will not be entitled to dissenter's rights with respect to any matter to be considered at the Meeting.

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP

The following table sets forth, as of the Record Date, (i) the Common Shares beneficially owned by each director, nominee for director and named executive officer of CSB or any person who has acted in such capacity since the beginning of the last fiscal year of CSB and (ii) the Common Shares beneficially owned by all current executive officers and directors as a group.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires CSB's officers, directors and persons who own more than ten percent of a registered class of CSB's equity securities to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Officers, directors and greater than ten percent shareholders are required to furnish CSB with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file. During 2009, based solely on CSB's review of the copies of such forms received by it and by statements of officers and directors that they complied with all applicable filing requirements, CSB's officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners have complied with all filing requirements applicable to them.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

CSB's Code of Regulations provide that its business shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than three and not more than twenty-five persons. CSB's Regulations divide such directors into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and set their terms at three years. The Board of Directors, pursuant to CSB's Code of Regulations, has established the number of directors at seven (7).

Assuming that at least a majority of the issued and outstanding Common Shares are present at the Meeting so that a quorum exists, the two nominees for director of CSB receiving the most votes will be elected as directors. Shareholders have the right to vote cumulatively in the election of directors. In order to exercise the right to vote cumulatively, a shareholder must give written notice to the President, a Vice President or the Secretary of CSB not less than forty-eight hours before the time fixed for the Meeting, and the shareholder's demand for cumulative voting must be announced at the commencement of the Meeting by or on behalf of the shareholder. If cumulative voting is elected, a shareholder may cast as many votes in an election of directors as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares held. The Board of Directors has nominated Jeffery A. Robb, Sr. and John R. Waltman to serve until the 2013 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and until their respective successors are elected and qualified. Mr. Robb and Mr. Waltman are incumbent directors whose present terms expire at the Meeting.

If it is intended that Common Shares represented by the accompanying form of proxy will be voted for the election of nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card. (If you do not wish your shares to be voted for particular nominees, please so indicate on the proxy card.) If one or more of the nominees should, at the time of the Meeting, be unavailable or unable to serve as a director, the shares represented by the proxies will be voted to elect the remaining nominees and any substitute nominees designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors knows of no reason why any of the nominees will be unavailable or unable to serve. At this time, it is not known whether there will be cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting. If any shareholder properly demands cumulative voting for the election of directors at the Meeting, your proxy will give the individuals named on the proxy full discretion and authority to vote cumulatively and in their sole discretion to allocate votes among any or all of the nominees, unless authority to vote for any or all of the nominees is withheld.

The Board of Directors recommends that shareholders vote "FOR" the election of the nominees.

The following information, as of February 18, 2010, with respect to the age, principal occupation or employment, other affiliations and business experience during the last five years of each director and director nominee, has been furnished to CSB by each director. In addition, the following information provides the Nominating Committee's evaluation regarding re-nomination of each of the director nominees and the key attributes, skills, and qualifications presented by each director nominee. In considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors, and consistent with its Charter, the Nominating Committee considers, among other things, the potential candidates' knowledge of the communities in which CSB and the Bank operate; their experience and any special business, financial, or other expertise; their reputation for honesty and integrity; and their ability to provide independent and objective oversight and supervision for matters which may impact CSB and the Bank. The Nominating Committee also considers applicable requirements of the CSB Code of Regulations and requirements of applicable law and regulations with respect to evaluating potential candidates, as well as other matters which the Nominating Committee deems appropriate in light of the specific circumstances and the potential candidate. To that end, the Nominating Committee may conduct its own analysis and may also seek information from a variety of outside sources in order to ascertain whether a potential candidate meets the referenced criteria.

The Nominating Committee utilizes the same standards and criteria in considering and evaluating potential candidates for positions on the CSB Board of Directors who are recommended by CSB shareholders, when appropriate. The Nominating Committee currently does not have a diversity statement within its Charter. The members of the Nominating Committee are "independent", as defined by rules adopted by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., through its subsidiary The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc. ("NASDAQ"). The Nominating Committee operates under a written charter, which is reviewed annually by the Committee and the Board and is available on the Company's website at www.csb1.com

The Compensation Committee was appointed to establish policies and levels of appropriate compensation for directors, officers and employees of CSB. The Compensation Committee currently consists of Robert K. Baker, Ronald E. Holtman, and J. Thomas Lang. The members are considered "independent" for purposes of the NASDAQ listing requirements. The Compensation Committee operates under a written charter, which is reviewed annually by the Committee and the Board and is available on the Company's website at www.csb1.com. Additional discussion of the Compensation Committee's role is set forth in the Compensation Discussion and Analysis section of this Proxy Statement.

The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility to oversee the accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company. The Audit Committee members are Ronald E. Holtman, Robert K. Baker, and Jeffery A. Robb, Sr. All of the members of the Audit Committee are independent directors, as defined by the NASDAQ listing standards. Among other things, the Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of independent auditors, reviewing with the independent auditors the plans and results of the audit, and reviewing the adequacy of internal accounting controls. The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Baker and Robb meet the requirements of an "audit committee financial expert" as defined by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Mr. Baker acquired these attributes through education and his experience as a certified public accountant and as a Controller within private industry. The Executive Committee consists of J. Thomas Lang, Daniel J. Miller, Jeffery A. Robb, Sr., Eddie L. Steiner, Rick L. Ginther, and John R. Waltman.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The following discusses the material factors involved in the Company's decisions regarding the compensation of the Named Executive Officers (the "NEOs") as defined on page 17 during 2009.

The specific amounts paid or payable to the NEOs are disclosed in the tables and narrative beginning on page 17. The following discussion cross-references those specific tabular and narrative disclosures where appropriate.

Compensation Overview

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

We believe that, in order to manage and grow a well-run financial services organization, it is necessary to establish compensation programs and related opportunities that are attractive, motivating and rewarding to high quality executives, managers and staff. These programs and opportunities must be balanced with their cost to CSB and its shareholders. In order to arrive at the appropriate balance, CSB has established the following compensation philosophy and guidelines for its overall compensation program:

1. In order to attract and retain highly qualified management, we strive to provide target base salaries close to the mean of the market rate paid for comparable positions by similarly sized bank holding companies.
2. Where practical, we establish performance-based compensation focused on individual results, team results, and contributions to CSB's overall performance.
3. We attempt to link and align the wealth creation interests of management and shareholders by utilizing CSB stock awards or options as a component of the compensation program.

Components of Executive Compensation

Total compensation for executives is comprised of base salaries, annual cash incentive awards, long-term equity awards, retirement saving plan contributions, severance protection, and other benefits and perquisites. To determine compensation levels for the NEOs and other officers, we review compensation survey data from independent sources to ensure that our total compensation program is competitive. We look at compensation data from companies in the financial services industry by using publicly available peer company disclosures. We target overall compensation levels competitive with our industry comparison peer group. The various components of executive compensation reflect the following policies:

Base Salary

The purpose of the base salary program is to pay for the qualifications, experience, and marketability of the position consistent with market practices. A pay range for each position is anchored around the mean of the labor market. Individual pay within the range is determined by individual performance, job proficiency and contributions over a period of years.

Pay adjustments are tied directly to CSB's performance appraisal process, which evaluates the employee on a series of performance criteria. This process is used for all CSB employees including the NEOs. Pay adjustments are typically made annually. In addition to these performance-based base pay adjustments, it is periodically necessary to make additional market adjustments in those instances where market base salary levels move faster than anticipated or where additional duties and responsibilities are added to the job.

For 2009, the base salary levels for all CSB NEOs are at or below the median of base salaries of peers in other similar-sized financial organizations. In 2009, an overall budget of 2.0% for base salary increases was established and base pay increases ranging from 0% to 1.86% were provided to the NEOs.

The amount of an NEO's base salary is the reference point for much of the other compensation. For example, the relative ranges of potential annual incentive awards for executives are fairly proportionate to the NEO's respective base salaries. In addition, base salary is one component of the contribution formula under the Company's 401(k) and profit sharing plan and the key component in the Company's severance and change in control agreements.

Annual Incentive

The purpose of the annual incentive program is to focus executives on achieving and possibly exceeding the Company's annual performance objectives. In 2009, the performance expectations were established around performance to current year budget, the attainment of specific performance ratios, and satisfactory compliance with regulatory and audit reviews.

Each component of the annual incentive program has a separate measurement. The Compensation Committee retains the flexibility to make discretionary adjustments up or down based on performance that may be subjective. This discretion is not used to change the targets under the plan, only the rewards.

The target annual incentive opportunity during the past fiscal year was 30% of actual base salary for each NEO. For 2009, the Company's target budget was $3.7 million, target return on assets (ROA) was 0.89%, target return on equity (ROE) was greater than 8% and the target efficiency ratio was less than 69%.

Long-Term Incentive

The purpose of CSB's long-term incentive plan is to align the interests of the NEOs and other executives with the shareholders by providing them the opportunity to benefit from share price increases in the future through share option grants or awards under the 2002 CSB Bancorp, Inc. Share Equity Incentive Plan.

In 2009, the CSB Compensation Committee took into consideration the market pay practices of CSB peers, the performance of CSB, a general assessment of the contributions of the individual NEOs, the available shares, and the projected grant values in making its recommendations. The Committee also sought input from the Chief Executive Officer on his views of grants for the NEOs.

Finally, the accounting and tax treatment of stock options is different from cash-based payments. For awards under the plan, CSB accrues an expense computed using the Black-Scholes valuation model on the date of grant pro-ratably over the vesting period. A stock option award of 1,000 shares was extended in 2009 at current market value to Ms. Meiler.

Retirement and Other Post-Employment Benefits

CSB maintains The Commercial & Savings Bank 401(k) Retirement Plan, (the "Plan"), a qualified 401(k) and profit sharing plan. The Plan provides a 50% match on the first 4% of cash compensation taking into account qualified compensation. There is also a discretionary profit sharing contribution and the amount may vary directly with CSB profits. The Plan provides investment alternatives in the following categories: CSB stock, large, small and mid cap, indexed, growth and bond funds.

Other Benefits and Perquisites

While the value of benefits including health and welfare, retirement, disability, and vacation benefits are not required to be reported in the tables that follow, these benefits are important to a comprehensive view of the CSB compensation and benefit program. All CSB employees, including the NEOs are eligible to participate in the same comprehensive benefit program, which is intended to provide financial protection to employees based on health and retirement needs as well as providing for well-deserved time off. CSB also provides a disability program to all employees including NEOs. Because financial services is a relationship-driven business, CSB pays country club dues for Mr. Ginther at a local country club to provide a facility to entertain CSB clients, community leaders and members of the management staff for business purposes. Certain consumer and primary residence mortgage loans granted by the Bank to directors, officers and all employees receive a 1% reduction to the standard loan interest rate during the period of service to CSB or the Bank.

Termination and Change in Control Terms

The Company has employment agreements with Messrs. Ginther and Greig and Ms. Meiler. The employment agreements provide both CSB and the executives a mutual understanding of performance expectations, pay, opportunities and employment terms. The employment agreements discuss how disability and voluntary and involuntary terminations are handled. In addition, the employment agreements provide for severance payments in the event of employment termination following a change in control of the Company. The purpose of the change in control severance policy is to help participants seek to maximize the value of CSB's shares without concern about losing their job. The NEOs covered by these agreements and the maximum cost of these change in control payments at December 31, 2009 for each named executive is as follows:

Mr. Ginther, President and CEO, The Commercial & Savings Bank	$355,193
Mr. Greig, Senior Vice President and COO/CIO	266,293
Ms. Meiler, Senior Vice President and CFO	258,033

Compensation Committee Decision-Making Process

The Compensation Committee is comprised of three non-management Board members whose responsibilities are the establishment of the Company's overall compensation philosophy, the assessment of the design of CSB compensation and benefit programs, the monitoring of external market pay levels and practices, review and approval of incentive award opportunities, actual payments and grants, and review and recommendation for Board of Director approval related to proposed implementation or material changes to pay or benefit programs.

With the participation of the Company's management, including the Company's Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee evaluated a survey of its pay practices for both directors and NEOs. The list of primary peers utilized in 2009 is as follows:

Central Federal Corporation	Fairlawn, Ohio
Cheviot Financial Corp.	Cheviot, Ohio

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

Certain of the Company's NEOs are party to employment agreements that provide for certain salary and benefits upon termination of employment under various scenarios. The agreements are all described more fully in the narrative and tables below.

The tables below set forth the benefits that could be paid to the NEO upon various termination events, which would only be known at the time that the benefits become payable. The tables reflect the multiples of base salary amounts that could be payable under the various arrangements if the event in question occurred as of December 31, 2009.

Upon a qualifying termination after a Change in Control, each NEO will also be entitled to immediate vesting of all stock options.

The NEO's employment agreements do not provide for any additional payments or benefits for death, disability, voluntary termination of employment by the executive or involuntary termination by the Company for cause. Under those scenarios, the Named Executive Officers are only entitled to their accrued and unpaid obligations, such as salary and unused vacation. The following tables contain common information about the Company's employment agreements and benefit plans.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

CSB has engaged, and intends to continue to engage, in the lending of money through the Bank to various directors and officers of CSB and the Bank and their related interests. These loans were made in accordance with applicable law and regulation and in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons and did not involve more than a normal risk of collectibility or other unfavorable features.

In addition to those banking transactions conducted in the ordinary course, the following related transactions were conducted. Each of these transactions was made on terms similar to those that could have been negotiated with an unaffiliated third party.
